Happy Holidays Friends!

This time of year, it's so easy to get caught up in everything we need to do, and sometimes we forget to take the time to enjoy the company of friends and family. We hope you all have an opportunity to take a break from the endless holiday to-do lists and revel in the joy and love of the season.

A wise man once said "One should open their heart before presents" and Yella is honored to continue our annual partnership with Project Bethlehem through the Lazarus House in Lawrence. The Lazarus House does such amazing work and helps so many struggling local families. If you'd like to help, they still need donations, and have numerous opportunities for volunteering. Thank you for all of your support over the
